Make 2008 your year of prosperity:

1. Improve the quality and regulate the quantity of food you eat—fresh, whole foods grown by small, local producers has very different energy than highly processed foods created by huge conglomerates.
2. Reduce the amount of clutter that prevents energy from flowing freely through your home and office. Blocked energy flow leads to blocked cash flow.
3. Keep your home, office, and car clean and in good repair.
4. Surround yourself with things that stimulate positive thoughts and memories. Get rid of things that stimulate unpleasant memories.
5. Interact with positive, satisfied people who don’t complain and gossip.
6. Manage your cash flow by keeping track of your money and making conscious financial decisions.
7. Develop positive inner habits, including thoughts, beliefs, emotions, expectations, and behaviors that are expansive and supportive of who you are today and who you would like to become.

8. Exercise and move your body to stimulate your physical energy systems.

Peace, love, and joy--Marsha
